Public Art Opportunities

Rainworks | Rain Activated Art

Request for Proposals Closes: September 9, 2016

The City of White Rock invites professional artists or artists' teams to submit proposals to create site-specific temporary public art projects created with Rainwork paint. Rainwork is an invisible spray that is rain activated and the art will only appear when it is raining. This is a community public art project and the artists must engage with community members to help create the project and choose the site locations.

Newport Public Plaza

Request for Proposals Closes: September 20, 2016

The City of White Rock invites professional artists or artist teams to submit an application for a site-specific public art project at a new public plaza at Marine Drive and Oxford Street, White Rock.
