

NOTICE OF JOB ACTION

City of White Rock CUPE 402-01 employees on job action at all City facilities. Mediated talks are scheduled Thursday, May 15 between both parties.

Timely, factual information concerning resident services and bargaining information for City of White Rock workers is available on the city website, www.whiterockcity.ca

The City has been, and remains, willing to bargain. The City always comes to the table in good faith with the goal of coming to a reasonable settlement. We continue to strive for a settlement that meets the needs of both parties. Information on the City's position to strike a fair and balanced outcome for workers and White Rock taxpayers is available on our website.

If you have any queries for a City department, please contact the main switchboard 604.541.2100 and you will be directed to an appropriate staff member during regular business hours. Staff will endeavour to provide prompt customer service to residents, businesses, and visitors. We appreciate your patience.
